Hello 2024! A College Dance for Every Body!

Let's get ready for an accessible dance party at the NCMA!

A suggested visual schedule

The party starts at 6:30 pm. We recommend you register online ahead of time for this free event. No college IDs are required.

1. The party is located in West Building, which is the silver, one-story building. You will walk through the lighted glass tunnel to get to the front doors. Someone will be there to hold the door for you.
2. Once inside, you will walk up to volunteers at our check-in table. They will ask for your name and hand you a color and movement activity sheet that you can use in the galleries.
3. Do you have a question or need a sighted guide or ASL interpreter? Staff and volunteers are wearing identifying buttons and are happy to help.
4. Next, you can head to the right for light snacks and a drink with your friends or say hi to someone new.
5. Then we will walk toward the center of the room and find DJ Smooth. He will be playing music all night. Consider taking dance lessons with ComMotion from 7:30–8 pm or 9–9:30 pm.
6. Check out the photo booth, consider adding to the “Resolution Wall,” or complete the scavenger hunt with a friend.
7. Feel free to go through the African galleries and take a break in our quiet space. You can sit on a chair or lie down on a plush couch. There you will also find earplugs, noise canceling headphones, and fidget toys.

The party ends at 10 pm.

We hope to see you there!
